Foreword

We come from distant places . . . We leave blue grass and green forests . . . but now we have the sands of Florida in our shoes . . . We are held forever by the warmth and friendliness of this "Land of Flowers" . . . The theme of the 1957 Beanpicker is . . . Sand in Your Shoes.

Mr. Larry I. Walden

Principal of Pompano Beach High School

To the Beanpicker staff . . .

Tomorrow is the today of yesterday. The 1957 Beanpicker has arrived at Pompano Beach High School. Many memories of yesterday have been captured for years to come. May I commend you for this fine publication.

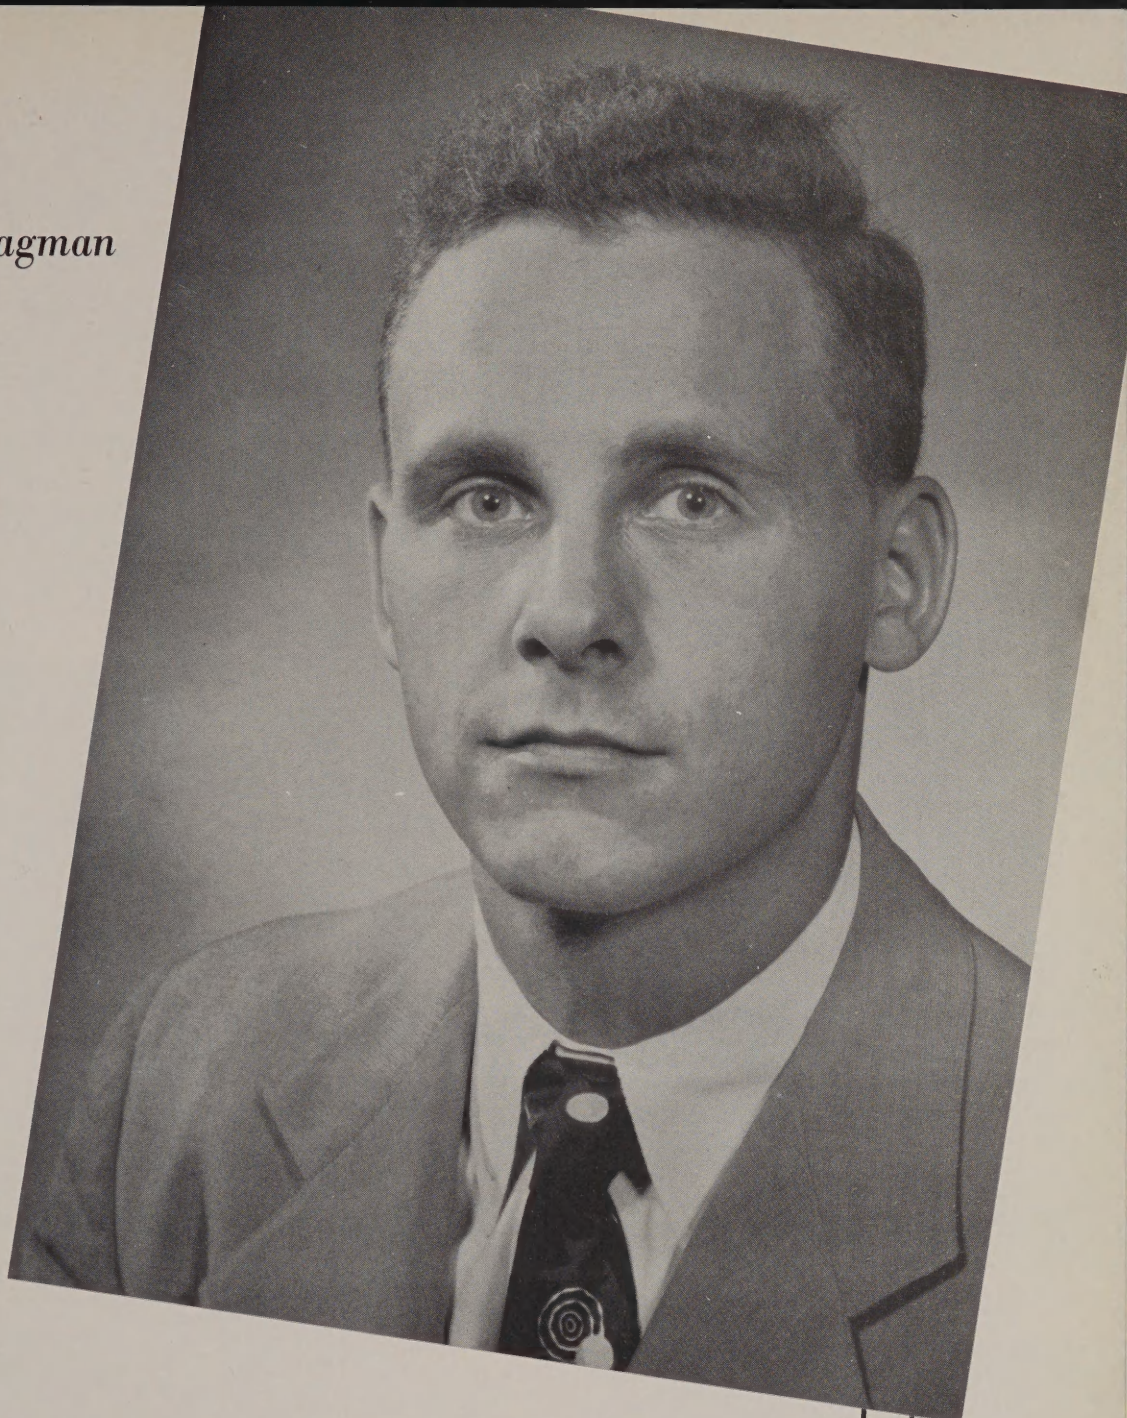

As we go through life let us remember "All the world is a stage," and we are the players thereon. Let us pattern our lives after the stars and not the moon. The stars give off light while the moon reflects it. The life that lights the way for us to see how to walk through the journey of life is of more value than a mere reflector.

Always your friend,

Larry I. Walden

Larry I. Walden

Mr. Dexter Hagman

To a teacher . . .

Some wise man has said: "A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops." The influence of Mr. Hagman is both far-reaching and beneficent. His quiet, unassuming manner and cheerful efficiency have won him a place in the affections of both the student body and the faculty.

It is with pleasure, therefore, that we dedicate the 1957 BEANPICKER to Mr. Dexter Hagman, teacher, leader, friend. To paraphrase Chaucer, "Gladly would he teach, and gladly would we learn."

Sincerely,
The Staff

MISS MARJORIE SOUTHERN

We remember

MISS SOUTHERN

As our friend and advisor . . .

Never too busy to hear our problems

Always understanding and helping us solve them . . .

Understanding us better than we understand ourselves . . .

Treating us as young men and women

Frank, honest, helpful and sincere.

Our Deans

CHARLES O. CARLISLE

We remember

MR. CARLISLE

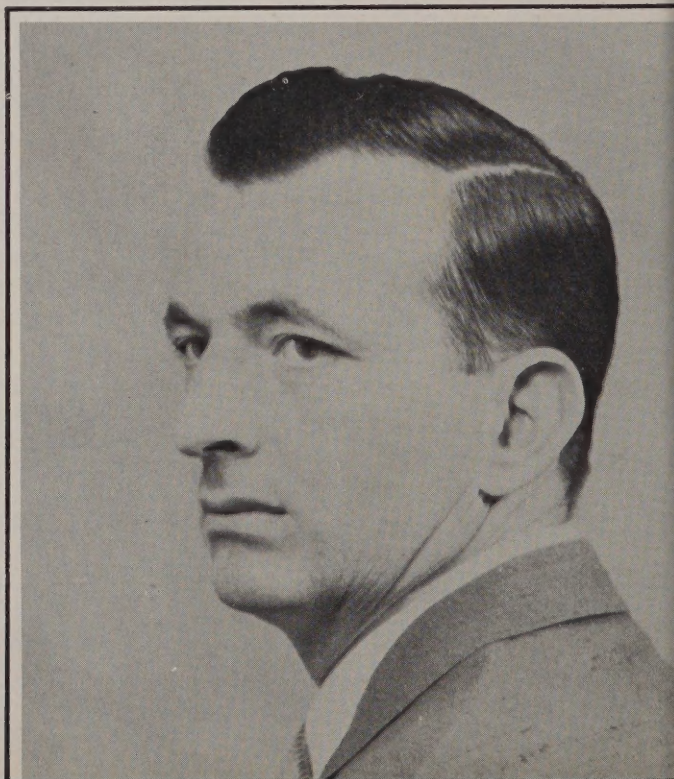

As our counselor and guide . . .

Always friendly and considerate of our interests . . .

Disciplining with firmness and patience . . .

Dispensing wisdom and encouragement

Ever calm, witty, available to help us solve our problems.

The Golden Tornadoes opened their season against the two toughest teams on their ten-game schedule. They bounced back to defeat Stuart and then tied highly regarded Fort Pierce 7-7. Clewiston, which was stronger than expected, defeated Pompano. The next game with Lake Worth was a defensive battle with Pompano coming out on top. Against arch rival Seacrest, the Tornadoes romped to a 59-6 victory. Pompano lost the Homecoming game by a single point. They finished the season by tying Pahokee and defeating county rival Central Catholic.

Pure thoughts—pure words—pure actions—is the slogan of the Tri-Hi-Y organization. Its purpose is “to create, maintain and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character.” This service club is open to Junior and Senior girls regardless of faith or creed.

Tri-Hi-Y entered a car in the Homecoming Parade, sponsored a “Bible Reading” program between Thanksgiving and Christmas in connection with the American Bible Society, and contributed to the Y.M.C.A. World Service Fund. A basket was prepared for a needy family at Christmas.

Tri-Hi-Y presented an assembly program in March, sent delegates to the state Tri-Hi-Y convention, and supplied favors for hospitals at Easter. Generous donations were given to the Red Cross and Community Chest during the year.

HI-Y

Hi-Y is a voluntary club program for boys in the eleventh and twelfth grades of high school. It is sponsored by the Young Men's Christian Association. The Hi-Y movement is international in scope, Christian in emphasis, interdenominational in character and democratic in practice.

The Hi-Y statement of purpose is "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school, home and community, high standards of Christian character."

The four planks of the platform are clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship, and clean living.

Jack Hall, vice president; John Muller, president; Tom Keenan, treasurer; Pete Meekins, secretary; Frank Simpson, Chaplain.

Hi-Y members play an active game of basketball.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

OF AMERICA

Our Future Homemaker Chapter has been very active in the past year. We have tried to live up to our motto "Toward New Horizons." The colors are red and white and the flower is the red rose.

Our chapter participates in the State Fair, District, State and National Conventions.

Although we are only four years old we have twenty-two members and are hoping for many more in the future.

Mr. Sanderson shows Billy Evans how to get the most from the F. F. A.'s mechanized steed.

The F.F.A. is built upon the foundation of leadership, character, improved agriculture, thrift and patriotism.

P.B.H.S. has one of the top F.F.A. chapters in the state. This year, as in past years, our Future Farmers have taken top honors in district and state with their scrapbook.

They have a 20-acre farm on which they have calf pens and cages for cage-layers.

The county school board has approved a budget of $4,000 for use in irrigating the 20 acres. A 12-inch well will be started on the farm in the first semester for an irrigation system. $358.86 was won for "Improving Agriculture."

Besides the many social activities sponsored by the F.F.A., they run a very prosperous nursery at the school.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the National Honor Society is based on character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

A member of this organization must maintain a 7.3 scholastic average and one-third "excellents" in citizenship. He must be a junior or senior. A sophomore student may be chosen as a probationary member if he meets the state requirements.

First row: Carol Woodward, Elaine Richards, Nancy Carlson, Beverly Thomas, Geraldine Corso.
Second row: Mrs. Johnson, Jo Etta Fullerton, Linda Dinkel, Ronnie Parry, Nancy Abbott, Deanna Herring.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Future Teachers of America, a club for students interested in teaching, seeks to train young people for practice of professional and civic leadership. The F.T.A. tries to have many projects each year to help the school and faculty. In the spring of every year they have a state-wide convention. Every F.T.A. Club has a sponsor who is interested in the work of the club. Pompano High School's sponsor is Mrs. Johnson.

Nancy Abbot, Carol Woodward, Jo Etta Fullerton, Elaine Richards, Deanna Herring.

ART CLUB

The purposes of the Art Club are to further interest in artistic endeavors, both personal and civic, and to provide a hobby for leisure time.

MONOGRAM CLUB

The members of the Monogram Club are those who through their participation in athletics have earned a P.H.S. sports letter. This club has as its most important purpose the development of good sportsmanship, scholarship, and citizenship. The club has organized parking for the basketball games and placed the "Golden Tornadoes" sign in front of the gym. Members of the club who have lettered twice in one sport are to receive jackets at the expense of the club.

Several members of the Monogram Club put the finishing touches on their masterpiece of artistic work.

The school and the community are justly proud of their high school band which has risen in just five years of contest competition to a place among the top bands of Florida. Last May, the Pompano Beach High School Senior Band was adjudged Superior at the State Contest in St. Petersburg after they had competed in concert, sight reading, and marching events. This highest rating was a fit climax to the steady growth in quality and quantity which the band has experienced. Many individual band students also won honors at the State Contest and Pompano Beach recorded the highest number of Superior-rated student conductors and the second highest number of Superior-rated solos and ensembles in the state. This year, the band is busily preparing for their entry into the District Contest at Pompano Beach and the State Contest at West Palm Beach.

The Senior Band is a closely-knit organization which works year-around at rehearsals and public appearances. This year, the band has thrilled football audiences with their precision drilling and popular half-time show themes.

JUNIOR HIGH HONOR BAND

The Junior High Band, under the direction of Mr. Richard H. Elliott, numbers approximately ninety members of grades seven, eight, and nine. The band was divided into two sections this year with eighth graders and above in section one and the seventh graders in section two. The band made numerous appearances during the year playing for JV football games, assemblies, and concerts. Some members were selected for membership in the All-Broward County Junior High Band which performed in Hollywood Circle Band Shell in February. A selected group of sixty musicians formed a group known as the Junior High Honor Band. These members were selected on the basis of musicianship and citizenship. Another group of outstanding seventh and eighth graders entered the District Contest in March and competed in Class DD, a classification reserved for bands using only players in this age group. The Junior Bands serve as a training group for Senior Band participation. Band section officers for the year were:

THE JUNIOR PLAY

"SPRING FEVER"

by Glenn Hughes
MRS. RAY CREECH, Director

Thursday and Friday
April 19 and 20, 1956

Seated: Tom Keenan, Susan Finlayson, Bill Flake, Carole Scowden, Karen Danielson. Standing: Bruce Campbell, Donna Mangum, Jack Delegal, Dennis Merton, Edna Averill, Jo Ann Bourne.

Bill Flake's mad experiments have quite evidently disturbed Tom Keenan, but notice how nonchalant Jack Delegal and Dudley Berry remain.

To the left we see that the play had a happy ending for young and old alike. Osculating are Edna Averill and Dennis Merton, Sue Finlayson and Tom Keenan.

SENIOR PLAY

"THE LITTLE DOG LAUGHED"

By Vera and Ken Tarpley

Directed by
MRS. RAY CREECH

Thursday and Friday, November
29 and 30, 1956

Daughter Donna and her date, Lloyd, are speechless over the midnight antics of Donna's family. Donna Mangum, Lloyd White, Robert Milne, Kathleen McFarlin, John Muller.

Above, the families try to part two irate fathers.

At left, the family endeavor to find the peak of their energy cycle. Looks as though they've reached the lowest point here.

Seated: Jack Varney, John Muller, Pete Meekins, Paul Pritchett. Standing: Dennis Merton, Ed Myrick, Bobby Walton.

BOYS' STATE AND GIRLS' STATE

MARCIA DUGGAN and EDNA AVERILL

Girls' State and Boys' State, although held at separate times, are alike in purpose. The American Legion and American Auxiliary sponsor these programs in each state in order to give high school students the opportunity to study and practice the operation of our democratic government.

Both boys and girls participate in the city, county, and state levels of government and are given innumerable chances to exercise their leadership, scholastic, and social abilities.

FEATURES

MOST INTELLECTUAL

PETE MEEKINS and GAY DAEHLER

Neither the study of Sanscrit nor the history of the sand dollar are beyond the capabilities of these two who seem to thrive on recondite knowledge.

MOST DEPENDABLE

PAT DOUGHERTY and BILL FLAKE

Even though the seas of time wash away the sands, our most dependable Pat and Bill will always be here to help us.

WITTIEST

LIZ RAAB and DENNIS MERTON

Nimble-witted Liz and Dennis are equally agile-footed aboard ship and fun to have around any time.

MOST SCHOOL SPIRIT

BOBBY WALTON and TISH PARRISH

Through calm or rough seas the pep and spirit of Tish and Bobby never fails.

BEST DANCERS

CAROLE SCOWDEN and JIMMY GARNER

Neither P. O. D. research papers, memory work for English or overtime work for a crabby boss would prevent our best dancers from enjoying themselves.

BEST DRESSED

CAROL ROZLER, ED MYRICK, and DONNA MANGUM

The best dressed students of Pompano High may someday rank among the ten Best Dressed Men and Women of the world.

CONTRIBUTED MOST TO CLASS

TOM KEENAN and MARCIA DUGGAN

After three years of faithful work, it's really time for these two to sit this one out.

MOST TALENTED

CHARYL BLACK, DUDLEY BERRY, and RONNIE PARRY

"Music hath charms" but these three have music, charm, wisdom, and wit.
What more could they ask!

BEST ACTRESS — BEST ACTOR

SUSAN FINLAYSON and BRUCE CAMPBELL

Laurence Olivier and Audrey Hepburn could very well take lessons in diction and gracefulness from our two stars of the stage.

MOST ATHLETIC

BILL ZINKE and PHYLLIS PREUSS

The capacity of their abilities is unlimited. Our athletes of today may be well-known stars of tomorrow on the golf course or football field.

*Once you've seen
The Land of Sunshine
Spent your days
in languid ease,
Lolling in the warmth of Maytime
While the poor, dear
Yankees freeze,
You have something to remember
And a lot from which to choose.
Keep the rocks
within your head,
Or get some sand in your shoes.*

AND NOW

BEANPICKER ASSEMBLY . . .

October was the month — Subscription drive was the project for which the Beanpicker Staff donned their thinking caps and doffed their dignity to present a campaign kick-off assembly.

Editor Marcia Duggan and Advertising Manager Mona Hirshman led the parade of talent.

John Muller was one of the panel of experts while Tom Keenan with monocle and Van Dyke was the moderator. Jack Varney played the unfortunate victim who was shot for not buying his 1957 BEANPICKER.

The fate of those who did not buy a BEANPICKER was actually much worse . . . they could not attend the BEANPICKER Ball, and, of course, they don't have a copy of the 1957 BEANPICKER, either!
